

Delft Road Safety Course for LMICs 2022-2023

Certification policy

Participants of the Delft Road Safety Course for LMICs 2022-2023 are rewarded a certification of their successful completion of the course. This statement specifies the conditions that Delft Road Safety Courses applies in issuing certificates. By submitting your registration for the course, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to these conditions. Delft Road Safety Courses reserves the right to modify these Conditions.

1. Certificates

1.1 Delft Road Safety Course for LMICs 2022-2023 consists of an online part and a classroom part. Full certificates - signed by the course leadership, the scientific advisor, chairman of the board and the director - will be issued if the conditions of both the online part and classroom part are met according to the course leadership. Participants only participating in either part, will only receive a partial certificate.

2. Online part

2.1 To obtain the certificate for the online part, participants must meet the following conditions:

2.1.1 Attendance to all (100%) scheduled online sessions.

2.1.2 Timely completion of issued assignments.

2.1.3 Each assignment is passed with 60% or higher. Participants are entitled to one (1) resit for each assignment only in case an assignment is graded <60%.

2.2 Exemptions can be agreed upon with the course leader only under the following conditions

2.2.1 The course leader is informed in time.

2.2.2 There is a valid reason, e.g. illness.

2. Classroom part

2.1 To obtain the certificate for the classroom part, participants must meet the following conditions:

2.1.1 Full attendance to all (100%) sessions during the 5 day course in Delft.

2.1.2 Timely completion of issued assignments – both group work as individual.

2.1.3 Active participation in the group work assigned during the sessions.